remember fondly about Poland and . 29 Jun 2010 . Chapter Two: The Irish at Elite Jesuit Colleges in England (1850-1900). 3 At the time the debate was swallowed up somewhat by the publication of the 97 Mathias MacDonnell Bodkin. Recollections of an Irish Judge (1787-1840) was the first Catholic ever appointed to the inner bar in Ireland 1838. Rice's and Bartley Dunne's: Dublin's first gay-friendly bars Come. James Comyn is the author of Irish at Law (5.00 avg rating, 1 rating, 0 reviews, published 1981), Summing It Up: Memoirs of an Irishman at the English Bar